From 2019 to mid-2020, UNMAS helped Afghanistan to:

Clear 32.6 sq. km. of contaminated land
- Declared Bamiyan free of all known minefields
- Last known minefield cleared by a mixed-gender demining team in Bamiyan

Deliver risk education to 1,088,317 people
- 606,864 Men
- 146,531 Girls
- 257,728 Boys
- 77,194 Women

Destroy 3,429 landmines and Explosive Remnants of War
- 1,761 Landmines
- 1,668 Explosive Remnants of War

Enhance national capacity in the management of mine action
- Standard for the clearance of improvised mines released. This is the first national standard of its kind in the world